the library.

The children's section has new book displays each month.

Respect is important at the library. We try to be quiet with our bodies and voices so that everyone can enjoy the library together.

The children's area has a whole section of Graphic Novels.

This is the photocopier machine I can use to print things out and make copies of things.

There are literacy game computers I can use.

Storytime at my library is held in the Forum Room or at Ives Park.

It is nice to have two places to hear stories, sing songs, and learn new things.

This is the book drop where I will return my books.
